

The NSW Government proclaimed the formation of a new Parramatta council the City of Parramatta on the 12th May, 2016.

The boundaries for the new Local Government Area incorporate most of the former Parramatta LGA, along with parts of the Hills, Hornsby and Auburn council areas, and a section of the Holroyd LGA. The former Woodville Ward is now part of the Cumberland Council.

Below are useful resources in our library for the Parramatta Council's wards:
